

Study Notes and Questions for Judges 12-14

- Write down what you consider to be the most important lesson or lessons that you got out of this first section on Samson.
- After studying these chapters, what changes or alterations to your daily life do you feel might be necessary?
- What gifts do you believe God has given you and in what ways might those God-given gifts be wasted?
- What things can you do to make sure a repeat of Samson's life doesn't happen to you?

Prayer Points:

- Begin by thanking the Lord for the wonderful gifts and abilities that He has given to you.
- Ask the Lord to bring strength into the weak areas of your flesh where Satan is most likely to attack.
- Read your responses to question number 2 and lay those before the Lord, asking Him to be your source or strength and power over sin.
